OFFICE ACTION

1. The documents submitted in the IDS (paper no. 4) have been considered.
2. Applicant election of Species A (Figs 1-10) is noted. Claims 19-27 stand withdrawn as being directed to a non-elected species. These claims (19-22) should be cancelled.
3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
4. Claims 1-2, 11, 13-15 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hall (IDS #1) in view of Hutchins.

Hall shows the claimed apparatus except the plural chain drives for the transfer. Hutchins (140) shows plural drives to extend and retract a transfer member 38. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Hall by providing plural drive means in lieu of a single drive to move the transfer member because it is a duplication of parts as taught by Hutchins.

Art Unit: 3652

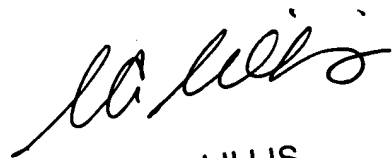

5. Claims 3-10, 12, 16 and 18 are objected to because they are dependent upon rejected claims. These claims should be submitted in proper form for formal allowance.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to R.B. Johnson whose telephone number is (703) 308-2565. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday thru Thursday from 6:30-9:30 A.M. to 5:00-8:00 P.M.
